Movement Against Castro.

one of the largest merchants in New York said Saturday night that arrangeThe boy killed was Frederick Cullman, A dispatch from New York says that ments are being perfected there and in Paris and London for a revolution in treasurer of the Metropolitan Opera Venezuela which will annihiliate Castro and open up that country to American capital and enterprise. A number of rich New York merchants are said to be interested in the movement, which, the promoters declare, will involve the employment of 15,000 sailors and the expenditure of $5,000,000 in the campaign. President Castro, if the plans do not go astray, is to be either expelled or destroyed, and a native Venezuelan statesman is to be installed as his successor. In this connection it is said that Castro, anticipating a successful revolution against him sooner or later, has converted some of his alleged $40,000,000 fortune into cash and has sent it to America and France.

Carlos B. Fergusredo, Venezuelan con aul in New York, said Saturday night at his home that he had heard such an expedition was being organized or promoted, but had been unable to learn anything definite about it. He said he had understood shares in the scheme were being sold. "I would like to get hold of one of those shares," he said. "I will buy all that are offered." The consul inquired eagerly as to the point the expedition was to sail from. The expedition is to set out shortly from Europe in three large steamships, which are al-ready under contract. They are to ready under contract. They are to carry about 5,000 volunt-ers, with the following quantities of arms and ammunition: Eight thousand Mauser rifles of the latest pattern, 24,000 rounds of cartridges, 500,000 shells, 8 rapid-fire guns, 8,000 army belts, 1,000 officers' swords, 1,000 officers' revolvers, 3,000 machetes and swords, together with other Suicide of a German Woman.

Most of the children in the Sixtyeighth street block, between Second and Third avenues, New York, knew Mrs. Josephine Sticker, a middle-aged Ger-Josephine Sticker, a mindle-aged can man woman, with a plain, kindly face and a habit of saying pleasant things. She lived at 25 east Sixty-eighth street. Mrs. Sticker saw a group of children on the sidewalk on Saturday evening. She went to them, rattling some loose silver in the pocket of her apron. "I have a little present to make to each of you," she said. "I am going away and I want you to think kindly of me." She gave each one of the children a small piece of money, a ten cent piece to the larger ones, a nickel to the little ones. They besieged her with questions as to where she was going, but she would not snswer.

Mrs. Josephine Van Bank keeps the found there shortly afterward by officers found there shortly afterward by officers his savage dog was beside him, and remore fused to allow any one to approach. Before Bailey's arrest cuid be effected in was necessary to kill the animal room and noticed a sheet of paper pitned to the door. It read: "I have shot myself. Send for the police."
The police found that Mrs. Sticker had shot herself as she lay in bed, putting a 22-caliber bullet into her right temple.
A note on the table, addressed to Mrs.
Van Bank, asked the landlady to take what effects she had in payment for board bills. Mrs. Sticker had been downhearted for several days, Mrs. Van Bank said. She was out of money and complained that her husband had not been to see her. The husband did not appear last night to take charge of the body, and it was removed to an under-taking establishment. Mrs. Sticker came from Germany seventeen years ago.

ing them in chile sauce and offering them to her as a dainty titbit, because she ardused his jealous suspicions. It appears that the attentions of other gallants to the good looking spouse were more frequent than the indignant Candelario could stand, so he selected this novel and repulsive mode of vengeance. He first seized and bound the unfortunate woman, and then with a sharp knife ruthlessly amputated both ears close to the head. Josefs, the wife, fainted under the sgony and loss of blood, but when she came to herself, her inhuman partner thrust a steaming plate of siew, properly seasoned with peppers, before her, sarcastically inviting her to nartake of it. off his wife's ears and then stewof stew, properly seasoned with peppers, before her, sarcastically inviting her to partake of it.

Killed by Automobile.

A large number of automobile accidents were reported in New York and suburbs yesterday, the most serious resulting in the death of a six-year-old boy in west Sixty-fifth street, the killing of House. The women injured on Pelman road, New Rochelle, were sisters—Mrs. Alvina Stein, of St. Louis, and Mrs. George J. Kuchler, a resident of the village. The women were walking in the roadway and did not hear the spproach of the automobile which struck them, and in which were riding two men and three women. Mrs. Stein and Mrs. Kuchler were hurled with traffic force against the stone abutment of a railroad bridge. Mrs. Kuchler's skull was fractured near the base and she suffered serious internal injuries Mrs. Stein's left arm was broken and crushed and she also suffered internal injuries. Both were taken to a hospital, where Mrs. Stein died last night. The recovery of Mrs. Kuchler is not expected. After the women had been struck the automo bile was brought to a stop and one of the men alighted. He was seen to run back, take a hurried look at the prostrate forms and then hurriedly reenter the machine, which was driven away at a rapid rate. The police last night claim-ed to have the number of the car and are trying to trace its ownership.

Woman Killed by Drunken Man. Mrs. W. A. Ennis was shot down and nstantly killed by Goldsborough Bailey, while standing in the doorway of her home at Parkers Mills, about four miles from Salisbury, Md., late Saturday night. The shooting occurred during the progress of a party at the Ennis home, which was interrupted by the appearance of Bailey, who came to renew a quarrel he had had earlier in the evening with John Ennis, as on of Mrs. Ennis. Bailey had had a quarrel with his wife about the diposision of some property, and the woman, fearing her husband, who had filled up with liquor, had gone for protection to the Eunises, who are her nearest neighbors. Bailey followed, and three times called to demand his wife, who refused to go home with him. He accused the Ennises of harboring her, and became so abusive that young Eonis threatened to "knock his block off." Finally he called while the party was in progress. Ennis went out, followed by his mother, who begged him not to get into an altercation with the drunken man. Finding Bailey had a gur, Ennis tried to take it from him. In the scuffle that ensued, the gur went off, and Mrs. Ennis fell dead. A young man stand-ing near was slightly wounded. Bailey walked away a few hundred yards, la down and went to sleep. When he was found there shortly afterward by officers
